

Small Package. Big Delivery.

When footprint and size determine design success, Holt and Falcon provide the industry's smallest solutions.

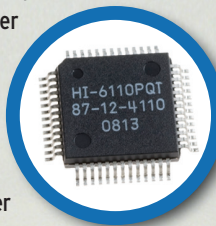

As a Falcon featured supplier, our partnership with Holt IC provides you with outstanding customer service, on-going support, and superior products like those showcased here.

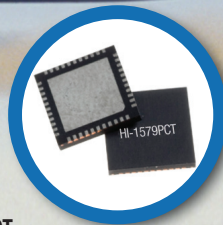

When demanding conditions add size reduction and power efficiency to your objective, Holt ICs, transceivers, and transformers pull together as a unit—delivering the small footprint, low-power integrated solutions that keep you on target.
